

Regarding instant traffic and weather provided by XM Radio :1. I am paying for these services, primarily because they are commercial free.
2. None of the pay stations in Phoenix provide truly timely services. Usually by the time that they announce a traffic jam, it is impossible to avoid it.
3. The removal of these services would constitute a restraint of trade and approval of the monopoly of large national public broadcasters, such as clearchannel.